

Ufomat

A collaboration between two artists to set a game which bases on the experiences of synchronicity. “Ufomat” transforms a chewing gum machine into an artistic intervention. Insert a euro, turn the lever, and become a part of the game!

Chewing Gum Machine filled with Texts, Photographs and Objects

The work appears as a functioning machine waiting for activation. It generates joy and confusion and triggers hope and imagination. It encapsulates time and chance. The intervention offers a playful tool, a resource, a fountain of ideas, objects, photographs, poems, and words. The game of luck, art, value, and symbolism ...
